ABOUT ME:

I'm Jaka from Slovenia, 27 years old, with around 4 years of experience building web apps. I like taking on challenges to gain more experience, tackling real-world problems and learning new tech. I'm also interested in mobile dev and brainstorming new ideas.

In my free time, I've contributed to a few open-source projects, and I also spend time trying out new frameworks, tools, and keeping up with front-end tech in general.

Outside of work, I like making coffee (barista-style), climbing, traveling, reading, and doing pretty much any kind of sport.
